

No money for a new School uniform?

Are you supporting someone on low income?

Are they finding it difficult to provide suitable school clothing for their children?

Are school trips and activities beyond their budget?

ScotsCare may be able to help with these costs and more!

ScotsCare
The charity for Scots in London

If you have a client who is struggling to pay for their children's new school uniform, school trips or activities, we may have the answer.

We help first and second generation Scots in the London area with financial difficulties. And it's not only school uniforms. We can also help with things like a student loan top-up, training for work and even affordable accommodation.

To speak to our client support team about referring a client or for more information, contact 0207 240 3718. Clients can use our freephone number below.
